THE NEW YEAR.

In wishing its readers a "Happy New Year," the GAZETTE is reminded of much that has been happily said and written upon the nature of happiness and the conditions which produce it. "Happy, who is happy?" said Thackeray. Indeed, the happy people are very few, and, perhaps, an absolutely happy person is not to be found upon the earth. It does not require a lengthy experience of the world and its ways to learn that many a smiling face is but the mask of an aching heart. Yet the pursuit of happiness is held to be one of the great objects of life, if not to include all other objects. It is surprising, then, that so few attain the prize of their endeavor. Happiness, though constantly in sight, seems somehow just beyond the reach of mortals, so that it is not to be wondered at that many of the religiously inclined abandon what they consider a vain search on earth, and look for no realization of their hopes of happiness this side of a heavenly hereafter.

No two persons entirely agree on what constitutes true happiness, and as to what are the best means to attain to it. Happiness for one man may not be happiness to another. But it is pretty certain that happiness comes from within, more than from without; that it is more the creation of the will than the product of circumstances. We hold with Saxe, that "Man may be happy if he will."

Be cheerful, look on the bright side of things, have courage, energy and hope; these are good practical directions for the happiness-seeker. People who are troubled with the "blues" would be disposed to say that the avoidance of melancholy will of itself produce happiness. Happiness may, in one sense, be said to consist in the absence of melancholy, as cold is simply the absence of heat. Old Burton, who spent a life time in the study of melancholy, at the conclusion of his "Anatomy" sums up the result of his observations in these words: "Be not idle; be not solitary."

And, in his "Hyperion," Longfellow gives this beautiful rule of life: "Look not back regretfully upon the past; it comes not back again. Wisely improve the present; it is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear, and with a manly heart."

Having thus not only wished them a Happy New Year but also put them on the track of happiness, the GAZETTE feels that it has done its whole duty by its readers.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The "Great American Fester," Dr. H. S. Tanner, contributed to the Christmas number of the New York Express an article on "Christmas Gorging." This reminds one of the custom of introducing a skeleton at every feast, which obtained among the ancient Greeks. What a jolly fellow Dr. Tanner would be to sit down to a Christmas dinner with, to be sure. Let him stick to his watermelon and milk, but when he comes among us at this season, obtruding his abominable doctrines under our attention, we will not listen to him.

The San Francisco Report reiterates its belief in the power of the Government to give an absolute value to coins, independent of their intrinsic value. The Report is not alone in holding to this idea. It is common to the ignorant of all nations. It seems useless to demonstrate the absurdity of what Adam Smith and John Stuart Mill long ago showed to be a popular delusion. Let our esteemed San Francisco contemporary read more and write less, and it will be of more service in the sphere in which, in His inscrutable wisdom, it has pleased God to place it.

The London correspondent of the New York Times writes as follows to that paper, under date of December 2d: "As an example of English good feeling toward American work, Scribner's Magazine for November reached a sale of over 15,000 copies, a circulation larger than Cornhill, Macmillan, Belgravia, Fraser, Blackwood or the Contemporary. * * The portrait of Gladstone in Scribner has given great satisfaction to the premier's family and friends."

George Eliot was buried yesterday in Highgate Cemetery, not in Westminster Abbey, which would be honored with her dust. In her life and works she abundantly proved that the highest achievements of the intellect and the deepest sympathies of the heart are as possible to women as to men.

The proposition to consolidate Virginia City with Gold Hill for municipal purposes is under discussion on the Comstock. Mayor Stephens of Virginia estimates that consolidation would save something like $27,000 a year. The Comstockers feel the necessity of cutting down taxation.

The Supreme Court of Missouri has decided that a telegraph company must produce telegrams specifically described by an order of Court, but can not be required to furnish copies of any and all telegrams passing between stated parties within a given period.

"The water in the Alta is still rising" is the news that comes from the Comstock every day. It looks as though the Virginians had got tired of digging for that woodchuck, and are now trying to drown him out.

There is cold weather down south. The Potomac river is frozen, there is good sleighing in Washington, and snow was yesterday falling in Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina.

There were two accidents on the Union Pacific road yesterday, and one on the Wabash, near Council Bluffs. A number of passengers were injured, but none fatally.

The severest storm of the season was raging in the Rocky Mountains yesterday. The storm accounts for the delay of the overland trains.

Thirty degrees below zero at Deadwood, in the Black Hills, yesterday. Several teamsters were reported frozen to death.

It has not been raining all winter at Portland, Oregon. There were two inches of snow on the ground there yesterday.

There are 151 insane patients cared for in Stockton at the expense of the State of Nevada.

Alturas has a new paper—the Modoc Democrat. It makes a good appearance.

Something Wrong Somewhere.

The Plumas National of the 25th says: "Major Whitlock informs us that the paper mail which left Quincy for Reno on Saturday's stage came back on Sunday, and the papers from Reno failed to come, and were probably sent back to that place on Sunday to take a fresh start on Monday morning. This comes from the carelessness of some postmaster, probably at Beckworth, and it seems as though such mistakes could be avoided. In these hard times for mails our people do not fancy going two days without their papers after they are due, and when the stage is making regular trips."

Three Suns Seen at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 30.

An extraordinary and rare phenomenon occurred this morning at this city commencing shortly after sunrise and lasting till 11 o'clock a.m. The sky was remarkably clear and the weather intensely cold. There appeared in the eastern heavens three suns and a beautiful rainbow halo. The phenomenon is known as a perihelia, and is a precursor of cold weather.

A Dull Closing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31.

The old year closed on Pine street to-day in the dullest possible manner. The stock board adjourned at noon until Monday.

The Poison of Mary Stover's Lips.

From the Grand Rapids Press.

Mary Stover took a dose of strychnine. A pet poodle licked her face while she was in her agony, and the poison on her lips killed the dog. The woman will recover.

Eucalyptus.

Eucalyptus has of late years been found very useful for a great number of the ills that flesh is heir to. Its latest application is in the shape of Slaven's California Fine and Eucalyptus Foresta Plaster, an article which is possessed of much merit, and is fast superseding the old fashioned pitch and frankincense plaster. It is endorsed by the medical profession throughout the land. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

ROUND ABOUT.

Sinking the Alta shaft will commence to-morrow.

The Appeal quotes butter at 83 cents per pound in Carson.

Dave Newman caught a live catamount in Sierra valley the other day.

Freight rates from Carson to Bodie have risen to 3½ cents a pound. The road is heavy with mud.

The Storey County Commissioners have ordered suit brought against Carrick's bondsmen.

Carson has a colored Hebrew, who lives in strict accordance with the rules of the synagogue.

The Storey county Grand Jury refused to find a true bill against D. L. Brown, of the Footlight, charged with libelling Dr. Bergstein.

Some persons think that hay will be very scarce in Sierra valley before spring. The valley is full of cattle owned by Miller, Freeman and Bolland.

A Chinaman last week changed eight $20-rolls at the Watsonville Bank. On opening said rolls they were found to contain only $61 50 in coin, and a quantity of lead.

C. H. Lawrence has paid J. W. Thompson $1,000 for "Carlie," a well known Plumas horse. "Ashley," "Wm. Tell" and "Carlie" are to be sent to the Bay for training.

Three and a half feet of snow have fallen in Sierra valley this season. There are about ten inches of packed snow in the roads there now, and the sleighing was excellent at last accounts.

Dr. Pritchard writes from Loyalton: "There have been ten weddings and eight births in the last few months in this valley, and six more babies are expected at any moment."

A Dog Guilty of Embezzlement.

From the Atlanta Constitution.

Dr. Mettauer's liver-colored pointer Jeff carries notes, goes for beef, and fetches ice regularly. Last week Jeff was sent for ice. He started with a towel, in one corner of which the nickel was tied up. Jeff saw that nickel put in, and immediately temptation assailed him. He could buy ice on credit, but beef was always cash. He labored with temptation until he reached Huff's corner, near the ice house, and then he yielded. Down in the dirt he crouched, and, after a tussle, got the knot untied. He buried the nickel, carried the towel in, received the ice, and came out; but not for the nickel. Oh no! The doctor must be left under the impression that the nickel had gone for ice. The ice was carried to the office, and Jeff came back like a flash, secured his cash, galloped to the beef stand, and in a few minutes was observed homeward bound with his dinner. He was not afraid to carry it home. He reasoned that the doctor would suppose some one had given it to him.

A Remarkable Summing Up.

Sir Alexander Cockburn, the Chief Justice of England, thought more of the spirit than of the letter of the law. When an unknown barrister he was intrusted with the defense of a man who, having been forced into an encounter with a noted duelist, killed him. "Gentlemen," he said to the jury, "my learned friend has told you that this is murder, his Lordship will tell you that it is murder; I know that it is no murder, and you know that it is no murder." After these words the jury immediately returned a verdict of not guilty.

Personal

Mrs. Alvaro Evans is ill in Long valley.

Miss M. B. Moody, of Truckee, is in town.

Stephen Conner, the nurseryman, has returned from his northern trip.

J. H. Kinkad has gone to Pyramid. It is said that the J. & K. mill is to be started up shortly.

Harry Hunter, Master of Transportation for the V. & T. R. R., arrived from the east with his family last evening, and went to Carson this morning.

Not Halls, But Reynolds.

The following marriage notice was published in the GAZETTE of the 28th inst.

"In Reno, Dec. 26, by the Rev. W. R. Jenney, D. Ralls to Miriam Brown, both of Verdi."
"D. Ralls" should have read D. Reynolds.

JOTTINGS.

District Court reopens on Monday.

Remember to write 1881 after to-day.

There is a plentiful lack of local news just now.

It is proposed to enlarge the Highland ditch.

Being a leap-year, 1880 has given us 366 days.

Beware of the insidiousness of egg nog to-morrow.

A lady advertises that she wants a place to do house work.

The assessment on Tioga became delinquent this morning.

The Bechtel and Overman assessments will be delinquent next Monday.

W. L. Knox is to be the Deputy County Clerk, succeeding Major Mann.

The reservoir is covered with wild ducks, but no shooting is allowed.

This evening the GAZETTE makes its appearance for the last time in 1880.

A gang of men has been repairing the C. P. track in the yard here to-day.

The barber shops will be closed to-morrow afternoon from two to six o'clock.

Live turkeys retail at twenty cents a pound. The dressed birds bring twenty-five cents.

Judge King will probably give a decision in the Lake divorce early next week, perhaps on Monday.

Next Monday the Grand Jury will meet and the County Commissioners will be in session.

The westbound overland will be seven hours late last night. It will be twelve hours late to-night.

District Attorney Bowman publishes a notice of the commencement of fifteen suits against delinquent taxpayers.

No agreement has been made for a general closing of stores to-morrow, but most of them will probably close at noon.

The drug stores will be closed to-morrow from one to six o'clock, and will be open from six to seven in the evening.

In this market eggs now retail for fifty cents, roll butter from eighty to ninety, and potatoes from one and a half to two cents.

Take a look at the "Streets of New York" next Thursday night, for the benefit of the Public Library fund and your own amusement.

There may be a more complete clothing establishment than the White House in some town outside of Reno, but the probabilities are all the other way.

Plowing has already commenced on the meadows. George Alt is sowing, and J. C. Smith will begin putting in grain next week. They hope to reap their harvest before the grasshoppers get thick.

Doubtless many ladies will "receive" to-morrow, but so few names of those who propose to entertain have been handed in for publication that they would look lonely in print, and are therefore not given to the world.

Joseph Peters last evening pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy, and Justice Young ordered him to appear for sentence this morning. Of course Peters availed himself of the opportunity to shake the mud of Reno from his feet.

The Sentence of Default Carrick.

When B. H. Carrick appeared yesterday before Judge Rising in Virginia for sentence, his counsel moved for a new trial. The motion was denied and the Court proceeded to pass the following sentence:

"It is the sentence and judgment of the Court that you be fined in the sum of $21,910 01—amount embezzled—and that you be confined in the State Penitentiary, at hard labor, for the period of five (5) years for the crime of embezzlement, your term of confinement to commence upon your delivery to the prison authorities."

Carrick's sentence is as severe as the law can make it. One year's imprisonment is the lowest penalty.

Held to Answer.

The examination of Oscar Tharp was concluded this morning. He was held to answer. Venner's case has not yet been decided, but will probably go before the Grand Jury.

SURPRISE VALLEY.

The Improvements in Cedarville—Cattle and Hay—Scarlet Fever Epidemic.

CEARVILLE, Cal., Dec. 28.

We have had an epidemic of scarlet fever, which has proven fatal in large families of children living in small, poorly ventilated houses. The fatality has been due to a neglect of proper sanitary precautions.

It has now rained and snowed here nearly every day for a month, and the stages are travelling a new road about two feet under the old one.

Our farmers are feeling the effect of not selling their hay, as usual. It is so far to drive fat cattle to the railroad that but few cattle are being fed. The only bands I know of are 900 head belonging to Pete French, and small bands owned by Hedspeith, McClintock and myself—in all about 1,400 head in this (Surprise) valley.

Our little town improves slowly, but steadily. This summer we have had a fine large Odd Fellows' hall built, and a very neat and tasteful little M. E. meeting house. The latter cost nearly $4,000, and is out of debt, besides having a parsonage with suitable out-houses. Wm. L. Cressler, of the firm of Cressler & Bonner, contributed nearly $2,000, and it is to his care and diligence, as well as liberality, that the community owe its first church, completed, even to the hall, and free from the customary indebtedness. I expect that St. Peter will require of Mr. Cressler only a photograph of this church as his pass.

W. H. PATTERSON.

County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met yesterday and proceeded to count the money in the County Treasury, finding as follows: Cash on hand, $22,388 95; cash in Reno school building fund, $1,030; two certificates of deposit in Reno Savings Bank, for $800 and $2,000; one certificate of deposit in First National Bank of Reno, for $500, aggregating $28,716 95.

Ordered that the Treasurer pay out of the Reno Town Incorporation Fund $400 of the principal of the Stone note, and the interest due on the same.

To-Night's Ball.

Kimball's hall never showed to such good advantage as it will when lighted up to-night, with its beautiful decorations of flags and evergreens.

The grand march will be called at nine o'clock. The youth, and the beauty, and the fashion of Reno will be seen at their best to-night. The Amateur Quadrille Band is expected to outplay itself. They have provided new music expressly for the occasion. Tickets are $2, and can be had at the door.

Horses on Snow Shoes.

Says the Plumas National, of Quincy, Cal.: "The blacksmiths have had quite a lively trade in horse snowshoes lately. These are made of hard wood nine by eleven inches, or thereabouts, with an iron clasp that fits over the hoof and holds them on. The stage horses on the high mountains would have a sorry time of it were it not for these useful appliances."

Church Notices.

There will be divine service at the M. E. church on next Sabbath at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M., Rev. C. McKelvey officiating. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered after the morning service. Song service at 6:30 P. M. Seats free. All are invited. Sabbath school at 1:30 P. M.

A Happy New Year to all Throughout the Universe.

In lowering the green curtain upon the last act of 1880, let us not forget the blessings we have enjoyed at the hand of the All Omnipotent, and greet the new year with thankfulness, not forgetting our motto: The three P. P.

OLD WARTY.

Must be Played Up Stairs.

Sheriff Walker issues a notice to faro dealers that the game must hereafter be played up stairs, to fulfil the requirements of the law. The late census showed that Reno had a population of over 1,500, and hence the town comes under the operation of the State law respecting faro.

Watch Night Services.

In accordance with the usual custom there will be watch night services at the Methodist church to-night. The first bell will ring at ten o'clock, and services will begin at 2:30. Old year will be spent in prayer and praising.

FURNISHING GOODS.

If you go to the right place to get them, This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. We do not boast when we say that we defy competition in prices in anything in our line. Besides this we have only one price. We have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at our establishment. Our stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything we have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on our shelves. We receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of our prices and examine our stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. We make a profit on everything we sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. We particularly call attention to our full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of our specialties. Orders from the country promptly attended to. Look out for the White Building with the Gold Sign.
